Voting rights? ft. Anne Brasseur, President, Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe
02/02/2015 - Russia Today

The suspension of Russia's voting rights at PACE for a second time has prompted Moscow to consider withdrawing from the Council of Europe. And with the Ukraine crisis escalating and the body count rising, neither side can afford to sever cooperation. What has been gained by the marginalization of a major stakeholder in the Ukraine conflict, and what avenues for moving forward has PACE left Russia after removing its voice?
