The EU condemns yesterday's insider attack and offers condolences to the victims

Kabul, 6 August 2014

The European Union Special Representative in Afghanistan (EUSR) and Head of the European Union Delegation to Afghanistan, Ambassador Franz-Michael Mellbin condemns yesterday's attack on troops from the International Security Assistance Force (ISAF) and the Afghan National Army at the Afghan National Military Academy.

"I offer my sympathy and deepest condolences to the family, friends and colleagues of the killed ISAF service member and hope for the full recovery of the many wounded servicemen", said Ambassador Mellbin. "The security provided by troops from the Afghan National Security Forces and ISAF is essential to the lives of millions of ordinary Afghans. Providing security is a difficult and dangerous job. We pay our respect to the servicemen, who undertake daily risks in the interest of the Afghan people and the future of this country".
