EU deeply saddened about the loss of lives in recent avalanches

Kabul, 2 March 2015

The EU Delegation, EU Heads of Mission in Kabul and the Head of Mission of Norway are deeply saddened by the loss of at least 300 lives as a result of the avalanches and landslides that occurred in the last few days in Kabul, Parwan, Panjshir, Kapisa, Badakhshan and Nuristan provinces. The EU is working closely with its partners to monitor the situation and make sure that relief is provided.

In this moment of national mourning in Afghanistan, the EU, its Member States and Norway extend their sincere condolences and deepest sympathies to those who have tragically lost family members and friends.
