Suva, Fiji
20 February 2015

Local EU Statement on the abolition of the death penalty in Fiji

The European Union Delegation for the Pacific issues the following statement in agreement with the EU Heads of Mission in Fiji:

The European Union Delegation welcomes the abolition of the death penalty in Fiji. This is an important commitment to the respect of human rights and a strong signal to other countries of the Pacific that still have death penalty.

ENDS.

For further information, contact:

Delegation of the European Union for the Pacific
Suva, Fiji
Tel: 3313-633
Email: Delegation-fiji-media@eeas.europa.eu