

ANNOUNCEMENT

EU Sanctions Seminar on 1 July in Almaty, Kazakhstan

On 1 July, the European Union is organising a full-day training seminar in Almaty on EU sanctions.

The primary aim of the seminar is to raise awareness of EU sanctions and their application, and to cooperate to counter possible circumvention of these measures.

The EU team of trainers is composed of sanctions experts from the European Commission, representatives from EU Member States as well as experts from the private sector.

The draft agenda of the event can be found here.

The seminar is free of charge and targeted to private operators interested in improving their awareness and understanding of EU sanctions. Private companies that would like to participate can register using the following link: link

The seminar will take place in Almaty (venue will be communicated to confirmed participants to emails). The working language will be English and Russian. The seminar will be held in a hybrid format, with the possibility to participate either in person or online via Zoom. Please indicate your preferred format during registration.

The deadline for registrations is 22 June 2026, after which participation will be confirmed by email.

The seminar is organised with the support of the International Science and Technology Center (ISTC).

For any questions regarding the seminar, please contact SanctionsKZ@istc.int.