

STUDY IN EUROPE 2019

ANNEX A

Country	BELGIUM
Number of Universities	11 research universities, 13 Universities of Applied Sciences (and Arts), 19 university colleges, 16 arts colleges.
Number of degree programmes	3600 (associate degree, Bachelor, Master, Advanced Bachelor, Advanced Master).
International courses	More than 400 (Bachelor, Master, Advanced Master, Postgraduate certificate) + tailor made PhD programmes. Many Masters programmes are entirely or partly delivered in English.
Tuition Fee	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - EU/EEA nationals: 922.3 EUR (2018–2019 for a full time programme) - non EU/EEA nationals: Fees vary per study programme, mostly between 922.3 EUR and 6000 EUR (with some exceptions).
Scholarships	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Master Mind Scholarship Programme www.studyinlanders.be - Scholarships and/or tuition fee waivers from the host institutions - Some grants and scholarships are available http://www.studyinbelgium.be/en/programmes-de-bourses
Living costs	Min. S$ 1350 per month
Work	Students are allowed to work max. 20 hours/week while completing a full time study programme.
Life after Studies	After completing a full time study programme in Belgium, the residence permit can be extended for up to 12 months to find work or start your own business. If you are recruited by a Belgian company, you will need to request for a working permit for foreign students from outside the EU.
Info	http://www.studyinbelgium.be/en and www.studyinlanders.be

Country	FINLAND
Number of Universities	13 Universities, 24+ Universities of Applied Sciences (UAS)
Number of degree programmes	Around 100 Bachelor's degree programmes; 200 Master's degree programmes & 23 special Doctoral programmes.
International courses	Ranging between S$ 6000 – $27,000. Doctoral studies and degree programmes in Swedish and Finnish are free.
Tuition Fee	For doctoral level studies and research as well as for gifted students pursuing all degrees.
Scholarships	Around S$ 1,050 - 1,350 per month
Living costs	Students are allowed to work part time up to 25 hours per week and during semester breaks full time. Students are also allowed to do traineeship related to studies.
Work	Students are allowed to work part time up to 25 hours per week and during semester breaks full time. Students are also allowed to do traineeship related to studies.
Life After Studies	Students can apply for one year additional residence permit after their graduation to search for work.
Info	www.studyinfinland.fi

Country	FRANCE
Number of Institutions	3,500 public and private Higher Education Institutions 75 universities; 227 engineering schools; 220 management schools; 22 schools of architecture; 120 arts colleges
Courses taught in English	French is not a requirement. There are more than 1,500 programmes available in English.
Tuition Fee	Licence programme: S$4,314 per year Master's programme: S$5,872 per year PhD programme: S$590 per year Students in public engineering schools: S$900 per year
Scholarships	Some grants and scholarships are available
Living costs	Around S$1,200-$1,600 per month
Work	Students are allowed to work part time during studies

Life after studies	After studying in France, you have the possibility to access the Provisional Residence (Autorisation Provisoire de Séjour, APS). During the validity of the APS, students can benefit from “salarié” (employee), “Passeport-talent” (Talent Passport) or “entrepreneur/profession libérale” (entrepreneur/freelance) card.
Info	www.singapore.campusfrance.org

Country	GERMANY
Number of Universities	400 Universities, Universities of Applied Sciences and Universities of Fine Arts
Number of degree programmes	20,000 (Bachelor, Master, PhD)
International courses	2,000 (Bachelor, Master, PhD, short courses, prep courses, language courses)
Tuition Fee	Most courses are tuition and bond-free.
Scholarships	Bond-free scholarships offered for the best: www.funding-guide.de and www.stipendienlotse.de
Living costs	About S$1,300 per month
Work	Students are allowed to work part time during studies, 120 full days or 240 half days per year
Life after Studies	After concluding a full time course in Germany, the residence permit can be extended for up to 18 months to find work.
Info	www.daad.de and www.study-in.de

Country	HUNGARY
Number of Universities	64
International courses	Over 500 programmes: bachelor, master and one tier master programmes, doctoral programmes, short courses, preparatory and specialisation courses, language courses, summer school.
Tuition Fee	Fees vary depending on institution, programme and level of study, ranges from 1500 USD to ca. 10.000 USD per semester. Bachelor programmes are generally less expensive.

Scholarships	Various scholarship opportunities are available: e.g. Stipendium Hungaricum, Erasmus+. www.studyinhungary.hu and www.stipendiumhungaricum.hu
Living costs	S$700–S$1100 per month Visit www.studyinhungary.hu/living-in-hungary/menu/yourcosts-of-living.html to calculate your costs.
Work	Students can work in their term–time for a maximum of twenty–four hours a week. www.studyinhungary.hu/living-in-hungary/menu/formalities/work-in-hungary.html
Life after Studies	After graduation if you would like to stay in Hungary for work purpose you need to have Residence Permit for the Purpose of Employment. www.studyinhungary.hu/living-in-hungary/menu/formalities/work-in-hungary.html and www.bmbah.hu/
Info	www.studyinhungary.hu

Country	IRELAND
Number of Universities	35 Higher Education Institutions comprised of: 7 Universities, 14 Institutes of Technology and 14 private/semi-private institutions.
Number of degree programmes	5,000+
International courses	Over 1,100
Tuition Fee	S$14,500 - $38,000
Scholarships	Bond-free scholarships offered for the best students
Living costs	About S$1,500 per month
Work	You can work part time whilst studying and full time during holidays
Life after Studies	You can work in Ireland for another 12 months once you have completed your degree. Completion of a post graduate programme allows graduates to work for 24 months.
Info	www.educationinireland.com

Country	ITALY
Number of Universities	98 (68 public universities, 19 private universities, 11 online universities) and 146 institutes of higher education in art, music and dance
Courses in English	More than 400 (including Bachelor and Master degree courses)
Tuition Fee	From S$ 1,400 to 6,000 per academic year at public universities; higher fees at private universities
Scholarships	Some universities offer special scholarships
Living costs	Between S$ 1,000 and 1,500 per month
Work	Students are allowed to work part time during studies
Life after Studies	Possibility to extend visa to find internships or job opportunities
Info	www.universitaly.it ; https://studyinitaly.esteri.it

Country	MALTA
Number of Universities	One state university and a few private learning institutions
Number of Degree Programmes	Over 500 courses including medicine, dentistry, nursing, business and humanities offered at both undergraduate and postgraduate level The University of Malta also offers PhD courses in several areas of studies
Courses in English	All courses at the University of Malta are taught in English
Tuition Fee	About 13,000 SGD – 21,000 SGD per annum (for undergraduate and postgraduate courses) Medicine and Dentistry cost 40,000 SGD per annum
Scholarships	Needs-based scholarships are available at the postgraduate level
Living costs	Living costs are about 1,600 SGD per month
Work	Students are allowed to work part-time for up to 20 hours per week during the course of their studies
Life after Studies	Students can stay in Malta for up to six months after completing their degree to work or seek employment
Info	www.um.edu.mt

Country	NETHERLANDS
Number of Universities	14 Research Universities and 39 Universities of Applied Sciences
International courses	More than 2,100 programmes are taught entirely in English
Tuition Fee	Bachelor's programme: S$9,000-S$23,000 Master's programme: S$12,000-S$30,000
Scholarships	11 scholarship programmes listed here: https://www.studyinholland.nl/study/scholarships/highlighted-scholarships
Living costs	About S$1,200– S$1,700 per month
Work	https://www.studyinholland.nl/practical-matters/working-while-studying
Life after Studies	Visit: www.careerinholland.nl
Info	www.studyinholland.nl

Country	NORWAY
Number of Universities	10 universities (in total over 40 institutions for higher education)
Number of degree programmes	More than 7000 different programmes
International courses	More than 250 Master's programmes and a number of Bachelor's degrees. All institutions have a large number of courses taught in English. Most PhD programmes are also in English.
Tuition Fee	Norwegian universities and university colleges do not charge tuition fees for international students, but some private institutions do
Scholarships	Most Norwegian institutions have various bilateral agreements with foreign institutions of higher education.
Living costs	About S$1,700- S$2,000 per month

Work	A student permit in Norway automatically grants a permit to work part-time for up to 20 hours per week. You can work full-time during holidays. Although living costs are high, part time work is relatively well paid and can help cover living costs.
Life after Studies	You are eligible to apply for a residence permit for up to one year in which to seek employment
Info	https://www.studyinnorway.no/

Country	POLAND
Number of Universities	Over 400 Universities and other Higher Education Institutions
Number of degree programmes	5,800
International courses	849 programmes in English
Tuition Fee	Bachelor's and Master's degrees: Around S$3,000 per year Doctoral degrees: Around S$4,500 Medical studies and MBA: Around S$12,000- S$18,000
Scholarships	Singaporean students may apply for Poland My First Choice Programme for a full tuition fees waiver and a monthly allowance
Living costs	S$600 per month
Work	Full-time students with student visas are allowed to work without a permit
Life after Studies	Graduates from Higher Education Institutions' full-time programmes can automatically prolong their residence permit for a year after graduation and do not need a permit to work during this period
Info	www.go-poland.pl/

Country	SPAIN
Number of Universities	87 universities with 345 university campuses
Number of degree programmes	Over 7,551 official programmes at Bachelor's, Master's and PhD level
International courses	More than 800 Bachelor's degree and more than 500 Master's taught in English (80 degrees & 322 master totally taught in English)

Tuition Fee	Bachelor's and Master's degrees: Around S$3,000 per year Doctoral Degrees: Around S$4,500 Medical Studies: Around S$12,000 MBA: S$12,000–S$18,000
Scholarships	For information on how to obtain a grant to study in Spain visit: http://www.studyinspain.info/en/reportajes/propuestas/How-to-obtain-a-grant-to-study-in-Spain And http://sepie.es/internacionalizacion/buscadores/becas.html
Living costs	Under S$1,500 per month
Work	If you are enrolled in any Spanish university or in a school attached to a Spanish university, or if you come from a foreign university and are taking a course of study in Spain, you have the option of doing some practical work experience while you're studying
Life after Studies	Spanish is the second most widely spoken language in the world State universities are part of the European Higher Education Area (EHEA), which currently includes 47 countries and offers multiple bachelor's degrees, master's degrees and postgraduate degrees.
Info	http://www.studyinspain.info/en/ http://www.sepie.es/internationalisation.html

Country	SWEDEN
Number of Universities	37
Number of degree programmes	Over 4,000
International courses	1,098 programmes taught in English including Bachelor's degree programmes and Master's programmes.
Tuition Fee	Average fee for Master's degree programme is around S$22,000 per year while Bachelor's programmes are generally less expensive.
Scholarships	For information on how to obtain a scholarship to Study in Sweden visit: https://studyinsweden.se/scholarships/

Living costs	About S$ 1,300 per month. For more visit: https://studyinsweden.se/life-in-sweden/cost-of-living/
Work	International students are allowed to work during their studies.
Life after Studies	Students can apply to stay in Sweden for up to six months after graduation to find a job and apply for a work permit, making Sweden the perfect place to launch an international career.
Info	https://studyinsweden.se/

Country	Switzerland
Number of Universities	12 Universities 8 Universities of Applied Sciences Several special institutes and private institutions
Number of degree programmes	Over 3,000 (Bachelor, Master, PhD)
Tuition Fee	Between S$700 and S$1,200 per semester with some exceptions.
Scholarships	Swiss universities offer several scholarship options. The Swiss Government awards Excellence Scholarships to foreign scholars for research stays in Switzerland.
Living costs	Around S$2,700 per month.
Work	International students are allowed to work a maximum of 15 hours a week during their studies.
Life after Studies	Students can stay up to 6 months in Switzerland after graduation. Switzerland has many excellent career opportunities among the various prestigious companies based across the country.
Info	www.studyinswitzerland.plus

Country	UNITED KINGDOM
Number of Universities	164 higher education providers and 235 further education colleges
Number of degree programmes	Over 17,000 courses at the postgraduate level Over 50,000 courses at the undergraduate level
International courses	All courses are taught in English
Tuition Fee	Between S$17,000 – S$64,000 per annum, depending on course of study.

Scholarships	Students should visit the universities' websites to look for scholarships. Other sources of information include: http://www.scholarship-search.org.uk/ http:// britishcouncil.sg/study-uk/scholarships-funding
Living costs	About S$1,950 per month (outside of London) About S$2,350 (in London)
Work	International students can work 20 hours a week if they are studying at degree level or above at a higher education institution. Students can work full time during vacation.
Life after Studies	For students on a course of at least 12 months in length, their Tier 4 study visa expires four months after the course completion date. Those who wish to continue working in the UK will have to find an employer and switch to the Tier 2 work visa before that.
Info	https://study-uk.britishcouncil.org/