

Join the online information sessions for Erasmus+ for Sub-Saharan Africa!

The European Commission and the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA) is running a series of online information sessions for Sub-Saharan Africa about the Erasmus+ programme and the new call for proposals which was recently launched.

These sessions are aimed at organisations and individuals who might benefit from the opportunities that the Erasmus+ programme offers around learning mobility and capacity building in higher education and vocational education and training.

Three sessions will be run in mid-December for the different language communities in Sub-Saharan Africa:

- English speaking community – 13 December 2023
- French speaking community – 14 December 2023
- Portuguese speaking community – 15 December 2023

All three sessions will run from 10:00 to 17:15 (WAT/CET) and will have the same agenda.

The agenda will include inputs on:

- The Erasmus+ programme and its impact in Sub-Saharan Africa
- International Credit Mobility
- Capacity building in higher education
- Erasmus Mundus Joint Masters and Erasmus Design Measures
- Capacity building in the field of vocational education and training
- Erasmus+ Virtual Exchanges
- Jean Monnet Actions
- How to apply for funding
