THE FUTURE IS FEMALE

Opportunities and Challenges for Women in Multilateralism

#interNconnected #IWD2023

Calling all trainees and young professionals working in multilateralism in Geneva! You are invited to our event for trainees by trainees!

On the occasion of International Women's Day, this event will facilitate a conversation about past and current gender dynamics in diplomacy, challenges and opportunities of women in multilateralism, and the recent backlash in gender equality. The event will bring together female leaders from across all regions, creating a space for interaction with a young, motivated, and engaged audience of trainees and young professionals.

The event will be moderated by trainees of the EU Delegation and is designed to allow the audience to engage, to share their views, and to participate in the discussion. A detailed agenda will be circulated nearer the date.

Learn about the experiences of women in political leadership positions from different continents and hear their advice for young professionals.

Join us to discuss the backlash in gender equality and the opportunities and challenges facing women in multilateralism.
