Thailand

Currently studying entrepreneurship and management at the Bangkok University, Thailand, Narubet is committed to advancing human development in ASEAN with a strategic focus on sustainable growth and community empowerment. As the leader of Double Learn, Narubet created an online volunteering platform designed to engage young people in Thailand. The initiative has managed to mobilise over 25,000 platform users in the past three years. With a mission to bridge innovative solutions and inclusive policies across Southeast Asia and Europe, Narubet is focusing on enhancing accessibility and quality of healthcare and education. As a Youth Sounding Board for EU in ASEAN, he aspires to amplify the voices of ASEAN youth in contributing to shaping a sustainable and collaborative future between ASEAN and the EU.

Focus areas: Public health and education