

Major General Remus – Hadrian Bondor

Military Representative of Romania to NATO and the EU

Born on 19 June 1967, Major General Remus-Hadrian Bondor began his military career in 1981 at the Military High School. Commissioned as an Air Defence Missiles (ADM) and Artillery officer in 1988, he first served as a Platoon Leader in the 66th Air Defence Artillery (ADA) Regiment.

Between 1989 and 2002, he held roles in the 50th ADM Regiment as Platoon Leader, Launching Battery Commander, and Staff Officer. In 2002, he became Chief of Operations and Training Plans at the 5th ADA Brigade HQ, briefly serving as ACOS OPS in 2004 before returning to the 50th ADM Regiment as Chief of Staff, 1st ADM Battalion.

Following graduation from the Command and General Staff College, in July 2007, he assumed command of the 385th Mountain Artillery Battalion/61st Mountain Brigade. After 37 months of command, he was assigned Chief Training Plans Bureau at the 4th Infantry Division HQ before being promoted to Chief of Training Section and ACOS G-7 Training in 2015 and 2016.

From September 2017 to January 2018, he was Acting Chief of Staff of the 2nd Infantry Division. He commanded the 15th Mechanized Brigade (2018–2019) before becoming Director of Management at Joint Force Command Naples. Returning in July 2022, he was appointed Chief Strategic Planning Directorate and served as Acting Deputy Chief of Defence for Operations and Training (2023–2024).

MG Bondor holds an Engineering degree from the Faculty of Electrotechnics and Informatics and a BSc in Military Science from National Defence University. A Distinguished Graduate of the US Army War College, he earned a Master of Strategic Studies and completed the Joint Warfighting Advanced Studies program.

His military education includes Air Defence Artillery courses, the Advanced Joint Staff Officer Course, the UN International Military Observer and Staff Officer Course, and NATO training programs.

MG Bondor's awards include three Honorary Signs in Service of the Country (XV, XX, XXV), Officer of the "Faithful Service" National Order, and several Medals of Honour.

He is married to Adriana Monica, and they have a son, Bogdan.