

Curriculum Vitae

Major General Mag. Rudolf Striedinger

Deputy chief of the defence staff

Date of birth:	26 September 1961
Place of birth:	Wiener Neustadt
Marital status:	Married to Gabriele Striedinger, six children
Education:	Primary school (1140 Vienna)
High school:	Theresianum (1040 Vienna)
Professional career:
September 1979:	National service as one-year volunteer at 21 Militia Training Regiment, Vienna
September 1980:	Officer training at Theresan Military Academy
September 1983:	Commissioned into the infantry as second lieutenant; instruction officer for one year, then company commander for four years, at 32 Militia Training Regiment
September 1988:	General Staff training at National Defence Academy

October 1991:	G3 officer (training, operations, territorial affairs, mobilisation) at Vienna Provincial Military Command
October 1994:	Head, Personnel Section (General Staff officers), General Staff Division, Federal Ministry of Defence and Sports
October 1997:	Commanding Officer, Cadets' Battalion, Theresan Military Academy
April 1998:	Head, Primary Staff Section, General Staff Division, Federal Ministry of Defence and Sports; then Deputy Director of that division
December 2002:	Director, General Staff Division, Federal Ministry of Defence and Sports
Second half of 2006:	Commander of a multinational task force (brigade) of EUFOR ALTHEA, Bosnia and Herzegovina
June 2008:	Again appointed Director, General Staff Division, Federal Ministry of Defence and Sports
May 2011:	Commanding General, Lower Austria Military Province
May 2016:	Director, Armed Forces Security Agency, Federal Ministry of Defence and Sports
January 2020:	Chief of Staff Federal Minister
July 2021:	Deputy chief of the general staff
Hobbies:	Sports (running, skiing, cycling), family - house - garden