

EUROPEAN UNION

Workshop on EU procedures for Local Rwandan Civil Society Organisations

The Delegation of the European Union to Rwanda is organizing trainings on August 01-03 and August 08-10 on grant proposal writing and EU procedures for local Rwanda Civil Society Organisations.

In the coming weeks, the EU Delegation to Rwanda will launch a combined call for proposals for the European Civil Society Organisations instrument (CSO) and the Human Rights and Democracy (HR&D). The purpose of this training and information session is to support local Rwandan CSOs to prepare for this combined call.

Objectives of the meeting

- To increase understanding about the EU Delegation to Rwanda and how it supports Rwandan civil society
- To improve knowledge among Rwandan local CSOs on EU procedures for calls for proposals
- To support local Rwandan CSOs to strengthen the quality of their project analysis to improve the success of their concept notes

The invitation is open to local Rwandan Civil Society Organisations. The training is limited to 60 organisations, with maximum one person per organisation. Priority will be given to organisations who have not received EU funding under a Call for Proposals within the past 3 years.
