

Bart OUVRY

Nationality	Belgian
Academic qualifications	<ul style="list-style-type: none">❖ Master in Communication Sciences (1985) University of Ghent❖ Master in Modern History (1982) University of Ghent
Professional experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none">❖ Since September 2019: Ambassador [and Head of Delegation] EU Delegation to Mali❖ December 2016: Ambassador [and Head of Delegation] EU Delegation to the Democratic Republic of Congo❖ September 2016: Diplomatic Inspector at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Brussels❖ 2014: Director of Human Rights and Democracy at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Brussels❖ 2011: Belgian Ambassador to Kenya, also accredited to Eritrea, Somalia, Seychelles, Comoros and Madagascar and Permanent Representative to UNEP and UN-Habitat❖ 2008: Spokesperson of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs❖ 2004: Consul-General of Belgium in Geneva and Deputy Permanent Representative to the UN in Geneva, Switzerland❖ 2000: Minister-Counsellor at the Belgian Embassy in Paris, France.❖ 1998: Deputy Director for European Integration at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs❖ 1995: Adviser to the Permanent Representation of Belgium to the European Union in Brussels❖ 1991: Deputy Permanent Representative to the International Atomic Energy Agency in Vienna, Austria❖ 1990: Office of the Minister for Foreign Trade, Brussels❖ 1988: First Secretary at the Belgian Embassy in Kuwait❖ 1986: Nuclear non-proliferation officer at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs
Language skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none">❖ Dutch❖ French❖ English