FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEDIA INVITATION

The EU-Singapore Free Trade Agreement (EUSFTA): Strengthening the Partnership between the EU and Singapore

Date & Time: 16 November 2018 (Friday), Noon-5pm.

Venue: Grand Ballroom (Level 3), Grand Hyatt Singapore

On October 19, Singapore and the European Union inked a landmark trade agreement in Brussels. The EU-Singapore Free Trade Agreement (EUSFTA) has been hailed as a pathfinder deal which signals both sides' continued commitment to open trade.

Singapore's Ministry of Trade and Industry together with the European Union in Singapore and partners EuroCham, Singapore Business Federation and Enterprise Singapore will jointly present the first outreach event to discuss various aspects of the EUSFTA on Friday, 16 November 2018.

Details on the event, titled: "The EU-Singapore Free Trade Agreement: Strengthening the partnership between the EU and Singapore", are below:

Friday 16 November 2018

Noon-5pm

Grand Ballroom (Level 3), Grand Hyatt Singapore

10 Scotts Road, Singapore 228211

Ms Helena König, Deputy Director-General of DG TRADE, European Commission will deliver the opening remarks while Dr Koh Poh Koon, Senior Minister of State for Trade and Industry will deliver the keynote address. Both will participate in a panel discussion "Connecting Regions, Creating Opportunities", moderated by Mr Simon Tay, Chairman, Singapore Institute of International Affairs.

Industry experts will participate in the panel discussion that will follow.

We invite your journalist, photographer and camera crew to cover the event.
